

SCIRA Board members Sarah Weisberg and Debbie Shefren attend IRA Council Affiliates and Awards Ceremony where SCIRA was awarded Honor Council status.

Honor Council status is earned by local councils who commit to literacy outreach projects at the local and international level.

Illinois Reads

an exciting new initiative by the Illinois Reading Council

Illinois Reads wants to promote literacy across the state, from read-alouds for infants to school-age children, from high schoolers to seniors. Every year, Illinois Reads will select and promote 6 books across different age ranges written by Illinois authors on a range of subjects.

Visit illinoisreads.org for more information and for book lists!

Book Worm Angels Annual Awards Reception

Lakeview Center (800 Gillson Park Dr., Wilmette IL)

refreshments to be served

May 11, 2013 1:00 - 3:00 PM

Adults $35 and children are free

Honorees include Jamie Gilson (Kermit Myers Achievement Award), David Lee Csicsko (Angel of the Year), and Patricia Little (Carolyn Quattrocki Award). Hear Jamie, a Chicago-area children's book author, read excerpts from her books. Each child will take home one of Jamie's books!

Reservations are required - visit www.bookwormangels.org or call 773.332.8091 to register