NANCY STEINEKE - READING & WRITING CONNECTION

Nancy Steineke consults nationally as a keynote speaker, workshop presenter, and literacy coach for K-12 teachers. She specializes in content-area literacy, nonfiction writing, purposeful close reading, literature circles, and student engagement. Nancy keeps the focus on manageable teaching strategies that best benefit students.

A published author and accomplished teacher, Nancy has been featured in classroom videos for Best Practice and Comprehension and Collaboration. Her groundbreaking work with book clubs and student led discussion groups is captured in her books Assessment Live! and Reading and Writing Together.

Nancy is an Illinois Writing Project leader. Along with Harvey Daniels, Nancy has organized and led over 50 multi-day institutes for teachers in locations around the United States.
